Uses of "have you had" and "did you have" - Stack Exchange In most contexts, both are usable. I would say the key difference between "Have you (done X)" and "Did you (do X)" is the timeframe. I believe have refers to a continuous past and asks if something has happened since a particular time. While did specifies a particular time and asks if it happened then.. When you don't specify the time, have defaults to either ever or recently. did you know? - Improving your knowledge daily with ...
